Committee Reports:

Committee: Zoning      Reported By: Charlotte Winzenburg

Report:

The zoning committee draft minutes were distributed to the board via email.

The SW corner of Washington & Speer is being slated for redevelopment. Representatives from CHUN, Alamo Placita, WWPNA (Charlotte) and nearby residents attended a meeting with the developer. The developer is looking at mixed use, possibly an RMU designation. Feedback to the developers included height restrictions (no more than 50 feet), hiding any parking, making the structure friendly to the residential area around the site.

Committee: House Tour      Reported By: Anita Martin

Report:

The price for house tour tickets was announced. Posters were distributed for delivery in a designated area.

Committee: Communications      Reported By: Anita Martin

Report:

A Communications Committee meeting is to be held August 8, 2005 at 6:30PM at the Cop Shop on Broadway.

256 HHs

Committee: Land Use and Transportation      Reported By: Sherri Way

Report:

A report was distributed via email prior to the meeting and a handout was available at the meeting. The report includes information on the Alcohol in Public Parks policy, Strategic Transportation plan and the NEPA process.

Committee: Environmental Concerns      Reported By: Charlie Busch

Report:

A full committee report is forthcoming based on meetings held the previous week. Sub-slab testing has found TCE amounts greater than 12x the indoor air standard at homes near Kentucky and Sherman. Further testing is ongoing. The Voluntary Cleanup Action Board (VCAB) will meet August 11, 2005 at 6:30 PM at the Presbyterian Church, 1st and Acoma.

Committee: Byers      Reported By: Merce Lea

Report:

A report on Byers Sandlot was provided by Merce at the meeting. The land swap was approved by City Council on July 25, 2005.

Committee: Cop Shop      Reported By: Merce Lea

Report:

A Cop Shop report was provided by Merce at the meeting. The Cop Shop, open a year now, is running smoothly, although volunteers are always needed.

Committee: Historic Preservation Reported By: Dave Burrell

Report:

Dave provided the following report via email:

The Historic Preservation committee has not yet met, but we are actively seeking members to determine the shape and focus of this committee. Our first meeting is planned for September.
